Beauty of the Desert

In the heat of summer, looking out into the desert.
You feel the dry wind beat against your face
And the stillness makes you wonder,
If there's life here in the desert.
You begin to thirst,
Your skin is in such pain.

Where is the beauty of the desert.
Where is the cactus and it's flowers in bloom.
Your soul keeps searching for the answers,
You wonder where is my God to refresh my soul.

The clouds begin to cover, the hot sun of the desert.
Your sweat becomes your cooling rain.
The warm breeze brings a freshness
You relax and close your sad eyes.
As you fall into a peaceful plain.

Your tears begin to stream down,
As your thirsty soul searches.
You wait and wait till silence fills your mind.
You decide to walk the dark night,
Where the light becomes so strong.
That its energy blast will make you eyes go blind.

Come, Holy Spirit, Come

Jesus pours out His love, Holy Spirit, from above.
Rain on us, Flame of truth, send Your breath, make us new.

Open us, to receive, all Your power, to believe.
You are here, as our light, You bring fire, in new life.

Shine on me My Love , help me receive your Power.
Come to rest on me, open me to Your will.

The Father will give the Spirit
And the Spirit will guide you to all truth.
It is the Spirit that gives life,
He remains with you and will be within you.
To be with you always.

God Is The Treasure

It doesn't take luck, it doesn't take charms,
It takes a lot of love to find it.
It doesn't take magic, It doesn't take money,
Try it, you won't mind it.

This Peace that you search for is not a pot of gold.
There's only one answer, follow the rainbow.
You've got to move your feet and take a walk,
Over the arc, you must go.
God is the Treasure, he's at the end of the rainbow

There's a dazzling path, high above
And there's something you should know.
That God is the treasure.
He's at the end of the rainbow.

Follow it. Follow it. Follow the rainbow.
Follow it. Follow it. Follow the rainbow
As the clouds clear, through the mist,
A rainbow will appear.
You want to know,
What's at the end,
Of the colors so clear.

This Peace that you search for is not a pot of gold.
There's only one answer, follow the rainbow.
You've got to move your feet and take a walk,
Over the arc, you must go.
God is the Treasure, he's at the end of the rainbow

How Cool is Jesus

Walk through walls.
Walk on the sea.
Walk on the earth.
Set us free.

Jesus is cool.
In word and deed.
He gives a sign.
He plants a seed.

Heal the lame.
Raise the dead.
Mend the heart.
Shares his bread.
Born in a manger.
Cures disease.
Washing feet.
Calming seas.

How cool is Jesus.
What is he made of.
We know from Scripture,
He's made of Love.
How cool is Jesus,
Teaching us how to pray.
Pray to the father.
Here's what to say

How cool is Jesus.
What is he made of.
We know from Scripture,
He's made of Love.
How cool is Jesus,
Teaching us how to pray.
Pray to the father.
Here's what to say

His Love is for all
Whoever you may be.
He hears all our prayers,
Lovingly.
He lived without sin,
To set us free.
He lived and died for you and for me.

I'm Ready, I'm on Fire

I wait for the Lord.
He'll renew my faith.
With wings like an Eagle
I glide on his breeze.
Strength grows inside.
His Spirit empowers.
Dwell in my heart.
Ground me in Love.

I'm Ready, I'm on Fire.
Let the Fire spread.
Nothing can stop me now.

I'm Ready, I'm on Fire.
Let the Fire spread.
Nothing can stop me now.

A spark will ignite,
His torch is my light.
Others will see,
His Fire in me.

I'm Ready, I'm on Fire.
Let the Fire spread.

Nothing can stop me now

I'm Ready, I'm on Fire.
Let the Fire spread.
Nothing can stop me now

My mission is clear.
Right before my eyes.
I'm calm and I'm patient.
As I give my all.
With care and compassion.
I'm led in his way.
Actions will speak,
Louder than words

I'm Ready, I'm on Fire.
Let the Fire spread.
Nothing can stop me now

I'm Ready, I'm on Fire.
Let the Fire spread.
Nothing can stop me now

The only joy is joy that lives
Within a heart that truly gives.
Build confidence in faith.

I'm Your Mother

I'm your Mother Give your love to me.
Put your trust in me, I'm your Mother.

I'm your Mother, God gave you to me,
I gave Him to you, I'm your Mother

Joseph and I made ready.
A stable, then a home
For the King of Kings,
My Son, Jesus the Lord.

I'm your Mother, honor me endlessly
Please have faith in me, I'm your Mother
I'm your Mother, build a house for me.
For the world to see, I'm your Mother.

My home is your home,
My house will be yours too.
Build for me so I can build in you.

Meet My Friend

One day I found Him,
I found the greatest friend.
He touched my life,
With a love that never ends.
He always listens,
Helps me to do what's right.
I have no fear.
He's the strength of my life.

Meet my Friend,
Meet my Friend,
Oh, oh, oh, Jesus is the greatest friend.
Meet my Friend,
Oh, Oh, Oh, Jesus is my friend.

I want to share Him,
Show you the love I feel.
Give Him a chance,
And you'll know His love is real.
The touch of Jesus,
The Son of God above,
Will give you power,
The power of his love.

Meet my Friend,
Meet my Friend,
Oh, oh, oh, Jesus is the greatest friend.
Meet my Friend,
Oh, Oh, Oh, Jesus is my friend

When he knocks.
Just let Him in.
Turn your life away from sin,
Come and help His kingdom grow,
Go out and let the people know.
Now we found Him,
We found the greatest friend.
He touched our lives,
With a love that never ends.

One Ray

Moving in my direction, as the black clouds form.
Its an eeriness that travels, moving closer is the storm.
I take cover from its wrath, cringe as booming thunder roars.
Lightning streaks across the sky, ripping clouds open, it pours.

Exhausted from my prayer, at the lowest point I feel,
A light from heaven sent, a gift given to heal.

One Ray, One Ray of sunshine breaks the darkened sky.
Lifting up my senses, answering questions why.
One Ray, One Ray of sunshine brightens up the night.
It pierces me with joy, my hope rides on its light.

My body shakes and trembles, as the cold wind finds its mark.
Drenched from the rain that seems to laugh at all the light
Drowned out by dark.
A fear begins to capture my every second's thought.
It seems like hope is gone, when the battle has been fought.

Every time the storm approaches I cower in my fear.
Then I remember what can happen from a sunshine ray that's near.
Even through a ton of thunder or a hurricane or two.
I don't need a heap of sunshine, just one ray of light will do.

Power

Power, the power within
The Power of God becomes my power within.
Power, the Power within.
As God grows inside, I share His power within.

Who am I, why am I here,
Questions that hang in my heart.
Who is God, what is His plan
Praying will help me to start.

His power will enter as I say "yes"
To yield to His will, He knows what is best.

What is love, how is it felt.
How do I give and receive.
What is faith, how do I live,
Questions that help me believe.

Prepare The Way

Prepare your hearts,
For the joy and the hope that's upon us
Prepare in truth
For the light and its peace on the world.

The Lord is coming soon.
The Lord is coming soon.

Prepare the way.
For the One who is to come.
Prepare The Way.
The Lord is coming real soon.

The Lord is coming soon.
The Lord is coming soon.

Prepare your eyes,
For the wonder we're about to see.
Hear good news,
Of the Spirit telling us to believe.

The Lord is coming soon.
The Lord is coming soon.

Spirit

Spirit, be my wisdom, be my words, lift me up.
Spirit, grow inside me, keep me yours, help me love.

I am sending you out like sheep to a pack of wolves.
Be cautious and gentle as doves.

Don't worry about what you'll say.
When the time comes I'll be your words.
For the words you'll speak,
Will come from the Spirit of God.

Be careful of too much food or too much drink.
Watch and pray you'll have the strength to be safe.

Fire fills the night, as the light pierces the darkness.
Pumping of the blood in a heart that's warm.
Giving to the world, the only word that's spoken
Calling out the answer deep within your soul.

Touch Me Lord

Love is the only way You lived here on earth
Love is the promise You gave us.
Love is the power that heal those who hurt
We love Lord, yes, we love.

Come into our lives, show us the path
Cause we need you, Lord.
And I need You to touch me Lord,
Touch my mind, my heart, my life, my Lord.
Fill me, Lord, I want You close to me.

Hope is the vision that You passed to Your friends,
Hope is the way of tomorrow.
Hope is the fire that can light up the night.
We trust, Lord, yes, we trust.

Come into our lives, show us the path
Cause we need you, Lord.
And I need You to touch me Lord,
Touch my mind, my heart, my life, my Lord.
Fill me, Lord, I want You close to me.

Faith is the call that You gave to all men.
Faith is the beacon in shadows.
Faith is the only way to live life again.
We live, Lord, yes, we live

Come into our lives, show us the path
Cause we need you, Lord.
And I need You to touch me Lord,
Touch my mind, my heart, my life, my Lord.
Fill me, Lord, I want You close to me.

Whisper of the Wind

Look for me, walk with me.
Find the peace you need in me.
Follow me, talk to me,
Focus all your life on me.

I am the Whisper of the Wind.
Listen to my voice, live in my peace.
I am the Whisper of the Wind.
Quietly, peacefully, you'll find me.

Come to me, desire me,
Fill your life with harmony.
Create with me, live in me,
Rest in me, eternally.

I am the Whisper of the Wind.
Listen to my voice, live in my peace.
I am the Whisper of the Wind.
Quietly, peacefully, you'll find me.

Give to me, totally,
Honestly, trust in me.
Love for me, brings unity.
Please listen for my voice,
Listen to my voice,
Listen for my voice.

You Are My God

You are my God, and I love You.
Yes, I love You, oh I need You.
You are my God and I love You so.

By Your love you have created me.
Give me power for my life is in Your hands.
Lord, You smile on me, You set me free.
Faith is trust, the trust we need on Earth.
Help me pass the test and win my crown of live.
Lord, I want to hear You say to me.
You've done well child, share my house with Me.

You are my God, and I love You.
Yes, I love You, oh I need You.
You are my God and I love You so.

Help me change, become a child of peace.
You're my Father and I listen to your words.
You have sent me out into the world.
Help me tell the world about Your healing love.
Guide my actions, as I journey on.
I'm a pilgrim walking on the path of life.
Lord I want to hear You say to me.
You've done well, child share my house with me.

You are my God, and I love You.
Yes, I love You, oh I need You.
You are my God and I love You so.

Come close my friend, hold me.
On my knees I pray.
Help me to love with my whole mind and soul.
Give me the strength to make it home.
Cast out all my fear.
Show me the path that will lead me to love.

You are my God, and I love You.
Yes, I love You, oh I need You.
You are my God and I love You so.

You Are the Miracle

There are some days with pain,
But after the endless rain,
The sun comes out again.
When all things turn to gray,
Find a will, a way.
To make a brand new day.

You are the Miracle,
The miracle is you.
You are the Miracle,
The miracle is You.

There is a time in Spring.
When all the robins sing.
And all the leaves turn green.

There is a time so new,
When miracles come true.
A miracle such as you.

You are the Miracle,
The miracle is you.
You are the Miracle,
The miracle is You.

Made in His image,
Temple of God.
Treasure life, special one.
Each day of your life.

You are the Miracle,
The miracle is you.
You are the Miracle,
The miracle is You.
